Catlin selected a 'Leader in the Law'

Hillsborough Circuit Judge Catherine Catlin, administrative judge in the family law division, has been selected a member of the 2013 class of Leaders in the Law by the Florida Association for Women Lawyers.

Leaders in the Law are women who have earned the professional respect of their peers and are involved in activities for the betterment of their community. They exemplify the qualities of a positive role model while advancing the cause of women.

Catlin, a judge since 2009, was nominated for the honor by the Hillsborough Association for Women Lawyers. She will receive an award certificate during The Florida Bar's annual convention in June.
