

Chief judge receives award

Manuel Menendez Jr., left, the 13th Judicial Circuit's chief judge, and Hillsborough County Bar Association executive director John Kynes, right, hold the James M. "Red" McEwen Memorial Awards given to them by the association's immediate past president, Pedro Bajo Jr.

Hillsborough Chief Judge Manuel Menendez Jr., along with Hillsborough Bar Association Executive Director John Kynes, received the James M. "Red" McEwen Memorial Award June 25 at a dinner to install the organization's new officers. Pedro Bajo Jr., immediate past president of the Hillsborough bar, presented the awards to the men to commemorate their assistance and support during his term as president.
