Copies can be obtained for a fee in the Court Business Center, on the 6th floor of the George Edgecomb Courthouse. You may also purchase copies for $0.15 per page, before filing your case, from the Family Law Intake staff in room 101.

STEP THREE - Filing your motion

Take the original set of completed and signed forms to the clerk on the 1st floor of the main courthouse and pay the filing fee, if applicable.

The clerk will bring the file to the judge. You will be contacted by the Judicial Assistant either by phone or mail once the judge has reviewed your file.

STEP FOUR – Notifying the other party

1. If the judge signs the Order to Pick Up Minor Children, complete the following forms to notify the other party:
 - A) Summons, Form 12.910(a) - (Needs to be signed by the clerk, not by you. There is a charge for this.)

A non-refundable fee is required (only cash, cashier's checks or money orders -- no personal checks). This fee will be waived if you have filed an Application for Civil Indigency and clerk has marked that you are indigent.

STEP FIVE – Scheduling the hearing

If the judge decides to schedule a hearing, the hearing date will either be written in the signed Order to Pick Up Minor Children or you will receive notification in the mail.

STEP SIX - The hearing

Normally the hearing is when the request in your motion will be decided.

HOW TO DRESS - Dress appropriately. No shorts, tank tops, or sandals. Do not chew gum.

WHAT TO BRING - All evidence you want the court to consider in deciding your motion.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The hearing will take place in a hearing room or a courtroom. You will not be in front of a jury, just the judge, general magistrate or child support enforcement hearing officer. Do not interrupt the judge, general magistrate or hearing officer.

Each court has at least one bailiff who is a deputy sheriff and is there to maintain order. When you arrive for your hearing, let the bailiff know that you are present and ready. He or she will announce your case when it is time for your hearing, and will tell you where to sit and where to place your belongings as you enter the hearing room. A bailiff will usually remain inside the room during your hearing. If witnesses are called, the bailiff will step out to bring the witness into the hearing room.

At your hearing, be prepared to discuss any issues covered in your motion and be able to provide proof of any disputed facts by presenting evidence. Evidence is proof presented at a hearing in the form of witnesses (people), exhibits (documents), and objects (things). Not all evidence can be considered by the court, however. Evidence must conform to the Rules of Evidence in Chapter 90 of the Florida Statutes to be admissible in court. Remember, the duty of establishing the facts that you want to present to the court is on YOU. You should provide the court with admissible evidence to support the claims in your motion and your statements in court. Telling your story may not be enough to have your motion granted.

Usually you will be notified of the court's decision at the hearing and the written order or recommended order will be mailed to you.
