

LEGAL INFORMATION CENTER

3Family Law 3Landlord/Tenant 3Small Claims

The Legal Information Center is a free program to provide information to people who are representing themselves in family law, residential landlord/tenant, or small claims cases in Hillsborough County. Other types of cases (for example: guardianship, trusts, probate, real property, foreclosures, commercial landlord/tenant, criminal, traffic, civil claims over $5,000, appeals, bankruptcy, Federal cases, out of county or out of state cases) are not covered by the Legal Information Center. The Legal Information Center's attorney assists people on a walk-in basis -- first come, first served. No appointments are scheduled. The walk-in hours change each day. Call 813-864-2280 to listen to a recording that gives information and current walk-in hours. Please call this recording the day you plan to come to verify the walk-in hours.

The Legal Information Center attorney cannot complete forms for you, represent you in court, or give you legal advice. The attorney can give you information about available forms and the legal process so you can make informed decisions about your case. The information that you give to and receive from Legal Information Center personnel is not confidential. If another person involved in your case seeks assistance from this Center, that person will be given the same type of assistance that you receive.

The Legal Information Center is operated by Bay Area Legal Services, a non-profit law firm. Funding for this program is provided by the law firm of Fowler White and TECO Energy.
