

IN THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER S-2018-022
(Supersedes Administrative Order S-2014-023)

UNIFORM BAIL BOND SCHEDULE

The uniform bail bond schedule has traditionally listed certain criminal offenses for which a person arrested is ineligible for release pending the first appearance hearing. Section 825.1035(11)(b), Florida Statutes (2018), provides that any person who is arrested for a violation of an injunction for protection against the exploitation of a vulnerable adult must be held in custody until brought before the court. Section 903.046, Florida Statutes, provides that any person arrested, who is a sexual offender or a sexual predator is not eligible for release on bail or a surety bond until the person's first appearance hearing, unless the arrest is for a misdemeanor offense under chapter 316, Florida Statutes. Section 947.141, Florida Statutes, requires that certain state supervised offenders who are arrested on a felony charge must be held for up to 72 hours pending a decision by the Florida Commission on Offender Review to issue a warrant charging the offender with violation of the conditions of release. It is necessary for the proper administration of justice to update the uniform bail bond schedule to reference these statutory provisions.

By the power vested in the chief judge under article V, section 2(d), Florida Constitution; section 43.26, Florida Statutes; and Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(2), it is therefore ORDERED:

1. General

The following bail bond schedule is established so that persons arrested for certain criminal offenses may be released on a bail bond prior to the person's first appearance hearing. This schedule is not intended to bind any judge conducting first appearance hearings or bail bond hearings. When determining bail, judges should consider the criteria set out in section 903.046, Florida Statutes, and Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure 3.131.

2. First Appearance Hearing Required

The following persons who are arrested will not be released on a bail bond pending the arrested person's first appearance hearing. The judge presiding at the first appearance hearing will determine the appropriate amount of bail bond, if any.

- Anyone who at the time of arrest is known to be on pretrial release;
- Anyone who is determined to be on felony probation or felony community control;
- Anyone who is determined to be a sexual offender or a sexual predator unless the arrest is for a misdemeanor offense under chapter 316, Florida Statutes (§ 903.046(2)(m), Fla. Stat.);
- Anyone who is arrested for any of the criminal offenses listed below
 - Capital Felony
 - Life Felony
 - First Degree Felony Punishable by Life
 - Attempt/Solicitation/Conspiracy to Commit First Degree Murder
 - Carjacking
 - Sexual Battery
 - Escape
 - Attempt/Solicitation/Conspiracy to Commit Second Degree Murder
 - DUI Manslaughter
 - Retaliating Against a Witness (§ 914.23, Fla. Stat.)
 - Failure of Defendant on Bail to Appear (§ 843.15, Fla. Stat.)
 - Domestic Violence (§ 741.2901(3), Fla. Stat.)
 - Violation of Domestic Violence Injunction (§ 741.30(9)(b), Fla. Stat.)
 - Violation of Repeat Violence Injunction when the alleged violation involves repeat violence (§ 784.046(9)(b), Fla. Stat.)
 - Violation of Pretrial Release when original arrest was for domestic violence (§ 741.29(6), Fla. Stat.)
 - Violation of Injunction for Protection against Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult (§ 825.1035(11), Fla. Stat. (2018))
 - Trafficking Offenses
 - Arson
 - Aggravated Child Abuse
 - Gang-Related Offenses (Ch. 874, Fla. Stat.)
- Any offender who is on release supervision under sections 947.1405, 947.146, 947.149, or 944.4731, Florida Statutes and who is arrested on a felony charge (§ 947.141(2), Fla. Stat.). If the first appearance judge determines there is probable cause for the arrest, the offender must continue to be detained without bond for up to 72 hours, pending a decision by the Florida Commission on Offender Review to issue a warrant charging the offender with violation of the conditions of release.

3. Warrants

Bail for persons arrested on a violation of probation warrant or a failure to appear warrant will be set in the amount provided for in the warrant itself. If the violation of probation warrant or failure to appear warrant is silent as to a bail bond amount, then there will be no bond, pending the arrested person's next appearance before the judge assigned to handle the violation of probation or failure to appear matter. Bail for arrest warrants will be set in the amount provided for in the warrant itself. If the arrest warrant is silent as to a bail bond amount, then the bail will be set in accordance with the provisions of this administrative order.

4. Schedule

Except as provided in sections 2 and 3 of this administrative order, any person arrested for a criminal offense may be released on a bail bond in an amount based on the designated classification and degree of the offense. Persons arrested for the following classifications and degrees of criminal offenses may be released on a bail bond in the corresponding amount:

First Degree Felony	$15,000
Second Degree Felony	$ 7,500
Third Degree Felony	$ 2,000
First Degree Misdemeanor & non-felony DUI	$ 500
Second Degree Misdemeanor	$ 250
City or County Ordinance Violation	$ 250

5. Previous Administrative Order Superseded

This administrative order supersedes Administrative Order S-2014-023 (Uniform Bail Bond Schedule).

6. Effective Date

This administrative order is effective July 1, 2018.

ENTERED in Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida, on June 27, 2018.
