

IN THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER S-2024-084

RESCISSION OF ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER S-1999-093

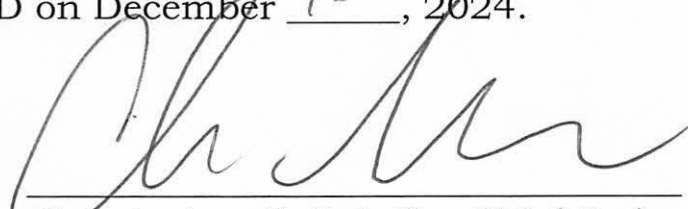

Since 1996, this circuit has had procedures regulating the pretrial release of persons arrested in Hillsborough County. The original purpose of these procedures was to help Hillsborough County jail facilities operate within mandatory population guidelines set by federal law without compromising the safety of the community.

Florida law and the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure now regulate the wide area of pretrial release. See chapter 903, Florida Statutes and Rules 3.131 and 3.132. Because these statutes and rules of court adequately regulate the use of pretrial release, and based on Administrative Order S-1999-093 and its predecessor administrative orders having served their purpose, it is no longer necessary for Administrative Order S-1999-093 to remain in effect.

By the power vested in the chief judge under article V, section 2(d), Florida Constitution; section 43.26, Florida Statutes; and Florida Rules of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(2), it is ORDERED:

Administrative Order S-1999-093 (Extraordinary Pretrial Release Procedures to Relieve Jail Overcrowding) is rescinded effective January 1, 2025.

ENTERED on December 10th, 2024.
