

IN THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER S-2026-012
(Supersedes Administrative Order S-2025-037)

CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT HEARING OFFICERS HANDLING TITLE IV-D MATTERS

The United States Congress enacted Public Law 93-647 in 1975 to establish Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (Title IV-D), thereby creating the Child Support Enforcement Program. Certain laws of Florida establish obligations for timely child support enforcement. Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.491 provides for the appointment of a child support enforcement hearing officer and further provides for certain child support enforcement procedures.

The chief justice of the Florida Supreme Court entered an administrative order on February 27, 1998, invoking the provisions of Rule 12.491 for both Title IV-D and non-Title IV-D proceedings in this circuit. The interests of the public, the litigants, and the judiciary require a flexible and speedy system for the resolution of proceedings involving establishment, modification and enforcement of child support, spousal support, maintenance, and arrearages.

In light of additional hearing officer resources, it is necessary for the proper administration of justice to update the procedures utilized in handling Title IV-D cases.

By the power vested in the chief judge under article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution; Florida Statutes section 43.26; and Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(2), it is ORDERED:

1. Duties of Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officers Handling Title IV-D Matters

Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officers (hearing officers) will serve under the direction of the administrative judge of the Family Law Division. All proceedings under Title IV-D involving the establishment, modification and enforcement of support orders, foreign child support orders, and determination of arrears including those owed to the state and public assistance debt owed to the state, will be heard by the hearing officers. The hearing officers may also establish paternity in cases where paternity is uncontested.

Contested paternity cases and disputes involving custody, visitation and property will not be heard by the hearing officers. Disputes involving custody, visitation and property will not be filed within the Title IV-D case but instead must be filed as a separate action. These issues will not be litigated in the Title IV-D case.

2. Powers of Hearing Officers

In addition to the general powers set forth in Rule 12.491, the hearing officers will have the power to:

A. Hear contested income deduction orders and recommend entry of appropriate orders in accordance with Florida Statutes section 61.1301;

B. Conduct all hearings involving the establishment, modification or enforcement of child support, spousal support, and maintenance obligations, as well as arrears (including those owed to the state and public assistance debt owed to the state), and recommend entry of appropriate orders in such cases;

C. Take testimony and establish a record at the hearing;

D. Accept voluntary acknowledgments of paternity, child support, spousal support, and maintenance obligations, arrears, and public assistance debt owed to the state and recommend entry of stipulated orders determining paternity or setting the amount of support, maintenance, or arrearages to be paid;

E. Prepare and recommend entry of default orders if the obligor does not respond as required by law; and

F. Perform such other and related functions as the chief judge may from time to time direct concerning the determination of paternity or enforcement of child support obligations.

3. Court Division Assignment

For tracking purposes, all Title IV-D cases will be filed in Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division "Y" and will also be assigned to a family law division based on an equitable random distribution. The Clerk of the Circuit Court (clerk) will indicate "Y-A," "Y-B," "Y-C," "Y-D," "Y-E," "Y-F," "Y-I," "Y-J," "Y-P," "Y-R" or "Y-T" to designate which division the case is assigned.

4. Appointment of Hearing Officers

Charles A. Denton, Sabrina M. Frey, Chardean M. Hill, Nancy W. Lawler, and Lila Stello are hereby appointed hearing officers for the purposes enumerated in this administrative order.

5. Hearing Officer Divisions

Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officer (CSEHO) Divisions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 are established as Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officer Divisions in the Family Law Division and East Circuit Divisions “P,” “R,” and “T” (Plant City). The hearing officers are assigned to the hearing officer divisions as follows:

Hearing Officer Division	Hearing Officers
CSEHO – 1	Charles A. Denton
CSEHO – 2	Lila Stello
CSEHO – 3	Sabrina M. Frey
CSEHO – 4	Chardean M. Hill
CSEHO – 5	Nancy W. Lawler

6. Case Assignments

All Title IV-D cases will be assigned via the Judicial Automated Workflow System (JAWS) based on the last two digits of the case number as follows:

Last Two Digits of Case Number	Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officer Division
00 – 19	CSEHO – 1
20 – 39	CSEHO – 2
40 – 59	CSEHO – 3
60 – 79	CSEHO – 4
80 – 99	CSEHO – 5

7. Flexibility of Case Assignments

The assignment of a case to a specific CSEHO Division does not preclude any other hearing officer from disposing of a case. Hearing officers may assist each other if the assigned hearing officer is unavailable or if the assigned hearing officer requests assistance.

8. Disqualification of Hearing Officer

A. Recusal

If a hearing officer determines it is necessary to disqualify herself or himself from a proceeding, the hearing officer will serve a Notice of Recusal on all parties, have the Notice filed with the clerk, and arrange to have the Notice brought to the attention of the family law judge who is assigned to the division in which the case is pending. The matter will be rescheduled with another hearing officer as follows: If the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 1 serves a Notice of Recusal, the case is automatically reassigned to and must be rescheduled with CSEHO Division 2. If the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 2 serves a Notice of Recusal, the case is automatically reassigned to and must be rescheduled with CSEHO Division 3. If the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 3 serves a Notice of Recusal, the case is automatically reassigned to and must be rescheduled with CSEHO Division 4. If the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 4 serves a Notice of Recusal, the case is automatically reassigned to and must be rescheduled with CSEHO Division 5. If the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 5 serves a Notice of Recusal, the case is automatically reassigned to and must be rescheduled with CSEHO Division 1.

B. Motion for Disqualification

i. Judicial Determination of Motion's Legal Sufficiency

If a party files with the clerk and serves on the presiding hearing officer a motion to disqualify, the hearing officer must immediately arrange for the motion to be brought to the attention of the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division "Y" who will rule on the motion. If the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division "Y" is absent from the courthouse, motions to disqualify a hearing officer will be reviewed and disposed of by the family law judge who is assigned to the division in which the case is pending.

ii. Motion Determined to be Legally Insufficient

If the judge determines the motion is legally insufficient, the judge will enter an order denying the motion to disqualify the hearing officer and the hearing officer will remain as the presiding hearing officer of the case. If the movant seeks to challenge the order denying the motion to disqualify the hearing officer by filing a petition for writ of prohibition in the Second District Court of Appeal, the case will proceed before the hearing officer unless the appellate court issues an order to show cause under Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.100(h).

iii. Motion Determined to be Legally Sufficient

If the judge determines the motion is legally sufficient, the judge will enter an order granting the motion to disqualify the hearing officer and the case will be reassigned to another hearing officer. If an order is entered granting a motion to disqualify the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 1, the case will be reassigned to CSEHO Division 2. If an order is entered granting a motion to disqualify the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 2, the case will be reassigned to CSEHO Division 3. If an order is entered granting a motion to disqualify the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 3, the case will be reassigned to CSEHO Division 4. If an order is entered granting a motion to disqualify the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 4, the case will be reassigned to CSEHO Division 5. If an order is entered granting a motion to disqualify the hearing officer assigned to CSEHO Division 5, the case will be reassigned to CSEHO Division 1.

9. Judicial Assignment

All recommended orders entered by the hearing officers, all orders approving stipulations prepared by the Department of Revenue, Child Support Enforcement, and all requests by the Department of Revenue, Child Support Enforcement for the entry of a writ of bodily attachment for failure to pay a previously ordered purge will be reviewed and disposed of by the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y.” If the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y” is absent from the courthouse, recommended orders, orders approving Department of Revenue, Child Support Enforcement, stipulations, and requests for entry of a writ of bodily attachment will be reviewed and disposed of by the family law judge who is assigned to the division in which the case is pending. If such judge is absent from the courthouse, the matter will be reviewed by the family law judge present in the courthouse whose division next follows in alphabetical sequence the division in which the case is pending. If the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y” enters an order of disqualification, the clerk will reassign the case to the family law judge who is assigned to the division in which the case is pending.

10. Recording of Proceedings

All hearings before the hearing officers will be electronically recorded. Audio recordings of proceedings held before the hearing officers may be obtained by e-mailing audiorequest@fljud13.org at the requesting party’s expense.

11. Recommended Order

Upon receipt of a proposed order, the hearing officers will promptly review and submit to the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y” a recommended order containing findings of fact in each case. The judge will enter the recommended order promptly unless good cause appears to amend the order, conduct further proceedings, or refer the matter back to the hearing officer to conduct further proceedings.

12. Contempt Matters

In all contempt hearings in which the hearing officer recommends immediate incarceration, a recommended order will be promptly prepared and then reviewed by the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y.” If the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y” is absent from the courthouse, the contempt matter will be reviewed by the family law judge that is assigned to the division in which the case is pending. If such judge is absent from the courthouse, the contempt matter will be reviewed by the family law judge present in the courthouse whose division next follows in alphabetical sequence the division in which the case is pending. Recognizing the need for expediency, if the court is attending to other judicial matters the court must recess as soon as is practicable and immediately review the hearing officer’s recommended order. If the court ratifies the hearing officer’s recommended order, the case will be recalled by the hearing officer and the defendant will be taken into custody by the bailiff. If the court determines that a hearing before the court is necessary, the matter will be scheduled on an emergency basis and must be heard immediately.

13. Instanter Proceedings

In all instanter hearings in which a respondent in custody has been brought before the hearing officer for a determination of their current ability to pay a previously ordered purge amount, the hearing officer shall promptly prepare a recommended order that will be reviewed by the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y.” If the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division “Y” is unavailable, the contempt matter must be reviewed and disposed of by the family law judge that is assigned to the division in which the case is pending. If such judge is absent from the courthouse, the contempt matter shall be reviewed by the family law judge present in the courthouse whose division next follows in alphabetical sequence the division in which the case is pending. Recognizing the need for expediency, the judge should review the hearing officer’s recommended order, without a subsequent hearing, unless the court deems that a second hearing is necessary. Upon the court’s ratification of the hearing officer's recommended order, a copy of the judge's order adopting the recommended order will be promptly transmitted to the sheriff.

14. Motions to Vacate Adopted Recommended Orders

Any party affected by an order adopted and entered by the judge assigned to Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Division "Y" may move to vacate the order by filing a motion to vacate in accordance with Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.491(f). All motions to vacate brought under this section will be reviewed and disposed of by the family law judge who is assigned to the division in which the case is pending. It is the responsibility of the movant to schedule the hearing and send notice to all parties, including the Department of Revenue, and to provide the court with a record of the challenged proceedings as outlined in Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.491(h).

15. Misfiled Actions

Any Title IV-D matter misfiled in a family law or juvenile division will be transferred to Division "Y" by the clerk upon proper notification.

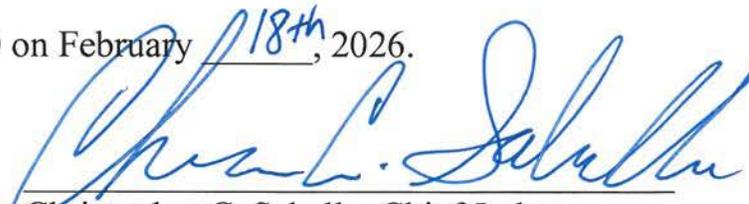

16. Previous Administrative Order Superseded

This administrative order supersedes Administrative Order S-2025-037 (Child Support Enforcement Hearing Officers Handling Title IV-D Matters).

17. Effective Date

This administrative order is effective immediately.

ENTERED on February 18th, 2026.

Christopher C. Sabella, Chief Judge

Original: Victor Crist, Clerk of the Circuit Court

Copy: All Family Law Division Judges

All Family Law General Magistrates & Support Enforcement Hearing Officers

Department of Revenue - Child Support Enforcement

Malinda P. Ottinger, Chief, Child Support Enforcement,

Attorney General's Office

Chad Chronister, Sheriff