A. Motion and Hearing Required. Any party seeking a continuance of any deadlines in this Uniform Trial Order must file a motion and set it for hearing. See Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. 2.545(e). Notwithstanding this provision, the Court may rule on the motion for a continuance without a hearing, if appropriate. The parties may also electronically submit to the Court a proposed Amended Uniform Trial Order identifying the new deadlines sought.

B. Motions must address impact of continuance on other deadlines. Any motion seeking a continuance of any deadlines in this Uniform Trial Order must indicate what, if any, impact the continuance of that deadline would have on all other remaining deadlines. See Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. 2.545(e).

3. Meeting before Pretrial Conference. It is Plaintiff's responsibility to take the lead in scheduling an agreed date and time for all counsel and any self-represented parties to meet in person or by videoconference, no later than 14 days before the pretrial conference, to:

This order must be signed by all participating counsel and submitted directly to the Court at least 3 days before the pretrial conference. If the parties are unable to agree on a matter in the Pretrial Conference Order, the matter should be raised and addressed at the pretrial conference. Disagreement on a matter or the refusal of the other parties to participate in drafting is not an acceptable reason for failing to timely submit a proposed Pretrial Conference Order.

4. Jury Instructions and Verdict Form. By the deadline set forth above, jury instructions and verdict forms must be filed with the Clerk and e-mailed in Word format to the division email address in accordance with the following:

A. Each instruction must be printed on a separate sheet of paper.

B. Counsel must confer before the pretrial conference as to any agreement they can reach on the instructions and verdict forms and advise the Court at the pretrial conference. For any disagreement, each party must provide authority supporting their preferred instruction or form.

C. Counsel are responsible for providing to the Court hard copies of the jury instructions and verdict form. Please ensure there are enough copies for all jurors and alternate jurors, lawyers, and any self-represented parties, the courtroom deputy clerk, and the Court to each be given their own copy. The jurors’ hard copies should not be numbered, should not have any designation as to the requesting party, and should not contain citations to supporting authority.

5. Full Settlement Authority. Counsel must be prepared to negotiate settlement at the pretrial conference and have full authority to settle the case or have available at the conference a party or representative with full authority to settle.

6. Availability of Witnesses. Counsel are responsible for doing all things reasonable and necessary to ensure their witnesses are available for the entire trial period or to otherwise preserve their testimony for trial in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

Examples of permissible ex parte communications include discussion of routine matters such as parking, location of break areas, how and when to assemble for duty, proper attire, and which items of a juror's personal property may be brought into the courthouse or jury room. Except for these types of permissible ex parte communication regarding juror comfort and safety, any other communication between bailiffs or other courtroom personnel and the jurors will be promptly reported to the court and the court will notify the parties of any matter that may be of interest to the parties.

9. Applicability of this Order to Self-Represented Parties. All provisions of this order that require compliance by counsel are likewise applicable to any self-represented party.

10. Trial Counsel Required at Pretrial Conference. At least one trial counsel per part must be physically present at the pretrial conference. Failure to comply with this provision will be construed as a willful and contumacious refusal to comply with a court order and will result in cancellation of the trial and the issuance of an order for the non-complying party to show cause why the case should not be dismissed or a default entered.

11. Sanctions. Failure to comply with this order will result in the imposition of sanctions including, but not limited to, delay of the trial date, costs, attorney fees, reprimand, and striking pleadings. The parties should carefully read this order and strictly comply with its deadlines and obligations.
