Florida Bar President, Scott G. Hawkins, and President-Elect, Gwynne A. Young, spoke on professionalism and the responsibility of lawyers to educate the public regarding the role of our judiciary at the initial meeting of the Tampa Bay Inn of Court on September 13, 2011. For the past several years, the Tampa Bay Inn has invited inspirational civic leaders to speak at the Inn's kick-off meeting each September, and Bar President Hawkins and President-Elect Young certainly inspired by encouraging the Tampa Bay Inn in its mission to promote professionalism, integrity, and community and civic service through the practice of law.
